1.3 Refer to the diagram showing the Concept of Development and answer the questions that follow.

1.3.1	GDP growth refers to the increase in the economic output of a country, typically measured by the rise in the Gross Domestic Product over time. ✓✓	(1 x 2) (2)
1.3.2	Typically leads to higher income levels, more employment opportunities, and the ability to invest in public services and infrastructure. ✓	(1 x 1) (1)
1.3.3	While economic growth can lead to improvements in living standards, it does not automatically result in better human development unless the benefits of growth are equitably distributed. ✓✓	(1 x 2) (2)
1.3.4	The cartoon portrays a negative impact of GDP growth on human development by highlighting how economic growth can sometimes benefit only a small segment of the population, leading to increased inequality and social disparities. ✓✓	(1 x 2) (2)
1.3.5	Their economic policies often prioritize growth over equitable distribution, leading to wealth concentration and neglect of social services that could benefit the broader population. ✓✓✓✓	(2 x 2) (4)
1.3.6	- Investing in education and healthcare - Implementing progressive taxation to redistribute wealth - Fostering inclusive economic policies that ensure all segments of society benefit from growth. ✓✓✓✓	(2 x 2) (4)
		(15)

1.4 Refer to the diagram showing the Concept of Type of Trading Relationship and answer the questions that follow.

1.4.1	No, the man with the cigar is not promoting free trade. ✓	(1)
1.4.2	The reason is that he appears to be imposing restrictions, such as tariffs or quotas, which are contrary to the principles of free trade. ✓✓	(2)
